

I drive truck for a living. I'm often in areas where I can't get regular radio signal, and when I do they're usually not giving road and weather reports. During times of bad weather I appreciate the fact that I can get weather reports of the area I traveling too. Something I can't do with conventional radio. Satellite radio has mad it much more convenient and safer during those times.